

Operation Enduring Freedom

At least 1,740 Americans have died in Afghanistan and other countries while serving in the Afghan mission. Here are those lost since The Inquirer last published the record March 31, 2010.

2010

March 24

Sgt. Maj. Robert J. Cottle, 45, Whittier, Calif., improvised explosive device.

Lance Cpl. Rick J. Centanni, 19, Yorba Linda, Calif., improvised explosive device.

Lance Cpl. Jacob A. Ross, 19, Gillette, Wyo., small-arms fire.

Lance Cpl. Randy M. Heck, 20, Steubenville, Ohio, nonhostile incident.

Pfc. James L. Miller, 21, Yakima, Wash., improvised explosive device.

Staff Sgt. Scott W. Brunkhorst, 25, Fayetteville, N.C., improvised explosive device.

Lt. Miroslav Zilberman, 31, Columbus, Ohio, nonhostile incident.

Lance Cpl. Tyler O. Griffin, 19, Voluntown, Conn., improvised explosive device.

Sgt. Frank J.A. World, 25, Buffalo, improvised explosive device.

April 2

Lance Cpl. Curtis Swenson, 20, Rochester, Minn., hostile fire.

April 8

Sgt. Roberto E. Diaz Borio, 47, San Juan, Puerto Rico, nonhostile incident.

April 8

Pfc. Jonathon Hall, 23, Chattanooga, Tenn., improvised explosive device.

April 9

Maj. Randell D. Voas, 43, Lakeville, Minn., nonhostile, helicopter crash.

April 9

Senior Master Sgt. James B. Lackey, 45, nonhostile, helicopter crash.

April 9

Cpl. Michael D. Jankiewicz, 23, nonhostile, helicopter crash.

A military honor guard carrying the coffin of Army Sgt. Jason Weaver, 22, of Anaheim, Calif., at a hero's welcome and memorial service in Los Alamitos, Calif., on March 14, 2011. He was killed by an improvised explosive device on March 3 in Afghanistan's Kandahar province. NICK UT / Associated Press

April 9

Sgt. Sean M. Durkin, 24, Aurora, Colo., improvised explosive device.

April 11

Spec. Joseph T. Caron, 21, Tacoma, Wash., improvised explosive device.

April 17

Sgt. Michael K. Ingram Jr., 23, Monroe, Mich., improvised explosive device.

April 18

Sgt. Randolph A. Sigley, 28, Richmond, Ky., nonhostile incident.

April 19

Sgt. Robert J. Barrett, 21, Fall River, Mass., improvised explosive device.

April 22

Sgt. Maj. John K. Laborde, 53, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, nonhostile incident.

April 23

Sgt. Jason A. Santora, 25, Farmingville, N.Y., small-arms fire.

April 23

Sgt. Ronald A. Kubik, 21, Brielle, N.J., small-arms fire.

April 24

Sgt. Grant A. Wichmann, 27, Golden, Colo., small-arms fire.

April 27

Sgt. Nathan P. Kennedy, 27, Claysville, Pa., small-arms fire.

April 28

Lance Cpl. Thomas E. Rivers Jr., 22, Birmingham, Ala., improvised explosive device.

April 29

First Lt. Salvatore S. Corma, 24, Wenonah, N.J., improvised explosive device.

May 1

Spec. Eric M. Finnigan, 26, Micronesia, indirect hostile fire.

May 2

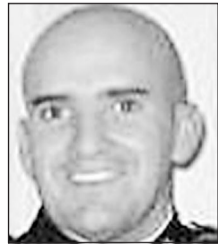

Master Sgt. Mark W. Coleman, 40, Centerville, Wash., improvised explosive device.

May 3

Airman First Class Austin H. Benson, 19, Hellertown, Pa., nonhostile incident.

May 5

First Lt. Brandon A. Barrett, 27, Marion, Ind., small-arms fire.

May 6

Lance Cpl. Christopher Rangel, 22, San Antonio, hostile fire.

Lance Cpl. Richard R. Penny, 21, Fayetteville, Ark., hostile fire.

May 6

Spec. Wade A. Slack, 21, Waterville, Maine, rocket attack.

May 7

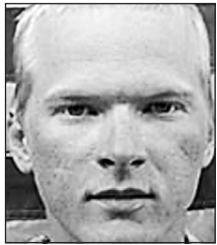

Lance Cpl. Joshua M. Davis, 19, Perry, Iowa, improvised explosive device.

May 8

Capt. Kyle Comfort, 27, Jacksonville, Ala., improvised explosive device.

May 10

Spec. Jeremy L. Brown, 20, McMinnville, Tenn., small-arms fire.

May 11

Cpl. Kurt S. Shea, 21, Frederick, Md., nonhostile incident.

May 11

Sgt. Kenneth B. May Jr., 26, Kilgore, Texas, improvised explosive device.

May 11

Cpl. Jeffery W. Johnson, 21, Tomball, Texas, improvised explosive device.

May 12

Sgt. Donald J. Lamar 2d, 23, Fredericksburg, Va., hostile fire.

May 12

Sgt. Joshua D. Desforges, 23, Ludlow, Mass., hostile fire.