

Operation Enduring Freedom

The names of 343 U.S. military service members have been added to the Afghanistan war toll since The Inquirer last published the record April 29, 2008. At least 773 Americans have died since late 2001.

2008

April 29

Sgt. First Class David L. McDowell, 30, Ramona, Calif., small-arms fire.

Senior Airman Jonathan A. Yelner, 24, Lafayette, Calif., improvised explosive device.

May 7

Spec. Jeremy R. Gullett, 22, Greenup, Ky., improvised explosive device.

Staff Sgt. Kevin C. Roberts, 25, Farmington, N.M., improvised explosive device.

May 9

Sgt. Isaac Palomarez, 26, Loveland, Colo., small-arms fire.

Pfc. Ara T. Deysie, 18, Parker, Ariz., rocket-propelled grenade.

May 11

Pvt. Matthew W. Brown, 20, Zelenople, Pa., noncombat incident.

May 18

Master Sgt. Davy N. Weaver, 39, Barnesville, Ga., improvised explosive device.

May 19

Cpl. William Justin L. Cooper, 22, Eupora, Miss., small-arms fire.

May 20

Lt. Col. Joseph A. Moore, 54, Boise, Idaho, natural causes.

First Lt. Jeffrey F. Deprimo, 35, Pittston, Pa., improvised explosive device.

May 20

Lt. Jeffrey A. Ammon, 37, Orem, Utah, improvised explosive device.

May 25

Spec. David L. Leimbach, 38, Taylors, S.C., small-arms fire.

May 26

Spec. Christopher Gathercole, 21, Santa Rosa, Calif., small-arms fire.

Spec. Justin L. Buxbaum, 23, South Portland, Maine, nonhostile injury.

Soldiers at Arlington National Cemetery salute a fallen comrade from their Ranger unit. Cpl. Benjamin S. Kopp, 21, of Rosemount, Minn., was wounded in July 2009 in combat in Afghanistan and died days later at Walter Reed Army Medical Center in Washington. He had also served two tours in Iraq.

PAUL J. RICHARDS / AFP, Getty Images

May 28

Pfc. Chad M. Trimble, 29, Covina, Calif., improvised explosive device.

May 29

Sgt. First Class David Nunez, 27, Los Angeles, small-arms fire.

May 31

Pvt. Andrew J. Shields, 19, Battleground, Wash., improvised explosive device.

Spec. James M. Finley, 21, Lebanon, Mo., improvised explosive device.

June 3

Maj. Scott A. Hagerty, 41, Stillwater, Okla., improvised explosive device.

Pfc. Derek D. Holland, 20, Wind Gap, Pa., improvised explosive device.

June 5

Chief Warrant Officer James Carter, 42, Montgomery, Ala., helicopter crash.

Pfc. Andre D. McNair Jr., 20, Fort Pierce, Fla., helicopter crash.

June 14

Sgt. Michael T. Washington, 20, Tacoma, Wash., improvised explosive device.

June 14

Pfc. Michael Robert Patton, 19, Fenton, Mo., improvised explosive device.

Cpl. Layton Bradley Crass, 22, Richmond, Ind., improvised explosive device.

June 18

Pfc. Dawid Pietrek, 24, Bensenville, Ill., improvised explosive device.

Hospitalman Marc A. Retmier, 19, Hemet, Calif., hostile fire.

June 19

Petty Officer First Class Ross L. Toles 3d, 37, Davison, Mich., rocket attack.

Capt. Eric Daniel Terhune, 34, Lexington, Ky., hostile fire.

June 20

Lance Cpl. Andrew Francis Whitacre, 21, Bryant, Ind., hostile fire.

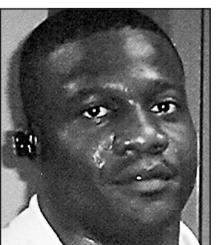

Hospitalman Dustin Kelly Burnett, 19, Fort Mohave, Ariz., hostile fire.

Sgt. Matthew E. Mendoza, 24, San Antonio, Texas, hostile fire.

June 21

Sgt. Andrew Seabrooks, 36, Queens, N.Y., small-arms fire.

Sgt. Nelson D. Rodriguez Ramirez, 22, Revere, Mass., small-arms fire.

Spec. Anthony L. Mangano, 36, Greenlawn, N.Y., small-arms fire.

Lt. Col. James J. Walton, 41, Rockville, Md., small-arms fire.

June 24

Spec. Ryan J. Connolly, 24, Vacaville, Calif., land mine.

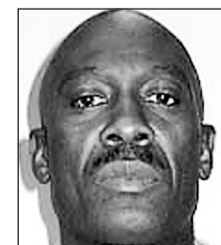

Staff Sgt. Christopher D. Strickland, 25, Labelle, Fla., improvised explosive device.

June 26

Spec. Mark C. Palmateer, 38, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., improvised explosive device.

Sgt. First Class Joseph A. McKay, 51, Brooklyn, N.Y., improvised explosive device.

Sgt. First Class Matthew L. Hilton, 37, Livonia, Mich., improvised explosive device.