Signature woements

We spill thousands of words each day trying to capture the ebb and flow of each team, the answers that lead to three more questions, the impact of every step forward and two steps backward. But so much of how the Daily News puts into perspective each of our franchise's successes and failures is reflected by the cover. That's what is represented here, just a tiny sampling of the images and headlines that show some of the detours that the four teams have taken during this long drought. From NIGHTMARE ON BROAD STREET, that numbing night in 1993 when the Phils blew a 14-9 lead and put their elimination in Mitch Williams' hand, to STINKO DE FLYO, that Cinco de Mayo evening when the 2002-03 Flyers came up with a Game 6 stinker and were ousted by the Ottawa Senators, here are a few classic pages to remind you how the journey has reached 25 years.
