

SPARKLING

- Quinta de Cabriz, Portugal 10.5
Vegetal tones with saline character. Unusual and excellent.
- Martinolles, Blanquette di Limoux, France 10
Tart green apples with a little zip. An elegant and fun sparkler.
- Louis Picamelot, Crémant de Bourgogne, France 12
A happy, rosé sparkler reminiscent of creme soda.

WHITE

- Chardonnay/Viognier, Santa Isabel, Argentina, (house) 6
A soft wine with a floral nose and mineral undertones. Excellent value.
- Torrentes, Fabre Montmayou, Argentina 8
A full-bodied wine with jasmine and honeysuckle notes. From an urban vineyard.
- Gris et blanc, Domaine Barmes Buecher, France 9
Alsatian gem. Minimalist character, but flavorful.
- Gros manseng, Lurton, France 8.5
White peach, slate and herbs. A lovely wine from a lesser-known grape.
- Aligote, Giraudon, France 9
A rich and lush wine wine with lemon and mineral. Great chardonnay alternative.
- Retsina, Gai'a, Greece 9
lemon verbena, thyme and pine. Very crisp, cleansing and most unusual.
- Pecorino, Cantina Frentana, Italy 11
Bursts in the mouth with fruit and apple, finishes fresh and clean.
- Grillo, Terre, Italy 8
Ancient varietal from Sicily with a lot of melon and citrus flavors.
- Viognier, Crossing Vineyards, PA 9
Tropical fruits and minerals. A "sexy chardonnay" from a local vineyard.
- Branca, Capoeira, Portugal 9
Tart apple with acid freshness. Nice substitute for hard cider, with a mythical rooster on the label.

ROSÉ

- Campirosa, Illuminati, Italy 10
Rich, big and full-bodied, like the Bugati you wish you owned.
- Thema Rosé, Pavlidis, Greece 12
Strawberry and mineral. Tastes like the first days of autumn.
- Gris, Geurraoune, Morocco 9
Light rosé with lots of strawberry. Pleasant, sociable wine.
- Cabernet Franc Rosé, Stargazer, PA 8.5
Raspberry and cherry fruits with some herbs thrown in for balance. Enjoy!
- La Saignée Rosé, Château Le Roc, France 9
fresh fruits with a hint of licorice. great when the leaves turn.

RED

- Malbec, Santa Isabel, Argentina (house) 6
Earthy and bold, but smooth, with subtle, elegant fruit. Traditional, but not anonymous.
- Carmenere, Montgras, Chile 8.5
Deep, ruby color with vanilla, mint and violet notes on top of dark, dried fruits.
- Le Fruit Défendu, Magellan, France 8.5
A "Forbidden Fruit", but you won't get kicked out of the garden for sipping this wine.
- Negroamaro, V. Savese Pichierri, Italy 10
Dark, juicy and fruity, Dolce and Gabanna does beaujolais.
- Umberta (barbera), Iuli, Italy 9.5
Ruby red color with cherry and plum. Good anytime. Try with salty cheese.
- Rhone Blend, Amazigh, Morocco 9.5
Moroccan beauty. Cherry nose with a strong, but blunt, finish.
- Cabernet Franc, Stargazer, PA 9
Raspberry, cherry and plum fruits, with a strong terroir of mushroom and spice.
- Grenache, Vin Paquita, Spain 9
Very yummy wine with licorice, tobacco and cherry, and a great label, too!
- Tempranillo, Picos La Mancha, Spain 9
Smokey, leathery adventure. Drinks like a pricey syrah.
- Chambourcin, Wycombe, PA 8
Sharp, full bodied wine. A grape exiled from France, but flourishing in PA.
